URGING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A NATIVE HAWAIIAN INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY TASK FORCE TO DEVELOP A SUI GENERIS LEGAL SYSTEM TO RECOGNIZE AND PROTECT NATIVE HAWAIIAN CULTURAL INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY, TRADITIONAL CULTURAL EXPRESSIONS, AND GENETIC RESOURCES

House Committee on Water, Land, & Hawaiian Affairs

April 12, 2019 10:30 a.m. Room 325

The Office of Hawaiian Affairs (OHA) offers the following COMMENTS on this measure.

OHA appreciates the intent of this resolution, which seeks to protect Native Hawaiians' cultural intellectual property, traditional cultural expressions, and genetic resources. This subject is of great concern to many beneficiaries of OHA.

Native Hawaiians continue to experience harms to their 'ike kupuna (ancestral knowledge, practices, and traditions) as a result of the existing western legal system that does not protect Native Hawaiians' cultural intellectual property, traditional cultural expressions, and genetic resources. The idea to develop a sui generis (one-of-a-kind) legal system to protect the cultural interests of indigenous peoples stems from the difficulty of relying on existing Western laws for that protection. Developing a sui generis system would be complex and intellectually challenging. Accordingly, OHA appreciates the legislature's exploration of ideas to address this complicated issue.

Mahalo for the opportunity to testify on this measure.

BEFORE THE HOUSE COMMITTEE ON WATER, LAND AND HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS

April 11, 2019

Senate Concurrent Resolution 204 Relating to the Establishment of a Native Hawaiian Intellectual Property Rights Task Force

Aloha Chair Yamane, Vice-Chair Todd, and Members of the Committee,

KPAC submits the following testimony in STRONG SUPPORT of SCR 204 urging the Hawai'i State Legislature to establish a Native Hawaiian Intellectual Property Rights Task Force.

Kanaka Maoli (aka Native Hawaiians) collectively have intellectual property rights based upon the traditional, cultural knowledge developed over thousands of years and passed down from generation to generations. The western intellectual property system was developed to protect the rights of creators and inventors against plagiarism and to reward and encourage new inventions. It was not developed to protect the rights of indigenous peoples to their collective, traditional knowledge, cultural expressions, and art forms.

On October 3-5, 2003, Kanaka Maoli leaders gathered at the "Native Hawaiian Intellectual Property Rights Conference" and expressed principles and commitment for the protection, expression and perpetuation of the Hawaiian culture under threat of theft and commercialization in a document called the Paoakalani Declaration. This document reinforces the need to protect our rights based upon a Kanaka Maoli world view.

Disputes over ownership and control of Kanaka Maoli intellectual property rights have steadily increased most recently brought to light by a non-Hawaiian food chain that originated in Chicago, Aloha Poke Co., who issued cease-and-desist letters threatening small poke food businesses in Hawai'i and Mokuhonu (the continent) from using the words "Aloha" and "Poke" wrongfully claiming ownership of these cultural expressions.

During the week of August 15, 2018 there were protests, sign holding events and a march in Chicago to raise awareness of this issue.

More than 170,000 people signed a petition demanding that No Aloha Poke Co remove both "Aloha" and "Poke" from their name. The petition can be found at https://www.change.org/p/levy-family-partners-aloha-poke-co-remove-aloha-and-poke-from-your-name.

Indigenous intellectual property rights have been addressed in many international forums. As the indigneous peoples of Hawai'i, Kanaka Maoli have rights to protect and seek redress for theft of intellectual property that are recognized by the United Nations as a Human Rights.

Respectfully submitted,

M. Healani Sonoda-Pale Chair, KPAC

Testimony of Aha Moku Advisory Committee

Before the House Committee Water, Land & Hawaiian Affairs

Friday, April 12, 2019 10:30 a.m. State Capitol, Conference Room 325

In SUPPORT OF SCR 204 (SSCR 1746)

Urging the Establishment of a Native Hawaiian Intellectual Property Task Force to Develop a Sui Generis Legal System to recognize and protect Native Hawaiian Cultural Intellectual Property, Traditional Cultural Expressions, and Genetic Resources.

Restored from the 9th Century by the translations of ancient oral chants by John Kaimikaua, a deeply respected kumu and historian, the Aha Moku Process (Aha Moku) was brought forward by over 200 kupuna and expert practitioners of many native Hawaiian traditional disciplines from each of the main Hawaiian Islands, in a series of public puwalu and countless community meetings from 2004 to 2012. The Aha Moku was transformed into law via Act 288, SLH 2012, §171.4-5 HRS through the efforts of the Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs. The Aha Moku is comprised of the archipelago of Hawaii – all the Hawaiian Islands including Moku Manamana (Northwest Hawaiian Islands). The traditional names used by each of the islands, prior to 1778 are: Moku O Keawe (Hawai'i Island), Moku O Pi'ilani (Maui), Moku O Kanaloa (Kaho'olawe), Nana'i Kaula (Lana'i), Moloka'i Pule O'o (Moloka'i), Moku O Kakuhihewa (Kaho'olawe), Manokalanipo (Kaua'i), and Ka Aina O Kawelonakala (Ni'ihau).

Each of the islands consist of moku and ahupua'a. Collectively, there are eight (8) mokupuni (islands) with their attached 46 moku (larger land districts) and 606 ahupua'a (smaller land districts) throughout the Pae'Aina. Each of the moku and ahupua'a have the traditional families still there, who have held on to the generational knowledge of their natural and cultural resources, their customs, and practices. And while collectively, as stated in the SCR 204, cultural expressions and art forms are expressed generally throughout the islands, it must be noted that every island is unique in their cultural expressions and dialects. These exclusive island-specific expressions and dialects must also be included in the protection of the Intellectual Property Task Force before they are forever lost, or misappropriated by researchers, authors, scientists, biotechnology corporations, universities, fashion and others.

Aha Moku is in strong support of SCR 204 (SSCR 1746) because a Native Hawaiian Intellectual Property Task Force that should develop ways to protect Native Hawaiian cultural property, expressions, and genetic resources is truly needed. We believe this task force will be able to protect not only the most well-known and general cultural expressions of Hawaii as a whole, but also to begin to recognize the unique differences in cultural practices and vocabularies that are exclusive and site-specific to each island. Aha Moku does not wish to offend any of the notable organizations that are listed in the BE IT RESOLVED clause, but because the Aha Moku is already a law via Act 288 SLH 2012, §171.4-5, and has access to the generational families of many of the ahupua'a within the State of Hawaii, we ask that we be added to the group from which the Task Force members will be selected.

Respectfully yours,

Leimana DaMate

Aloha kakou,

I STAND IN STRONG SUPPORT OF SCR 204 URGING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A NATIVE HAWAIIAN INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY TASK FORCE TO DEVELOP A SUI GENERIS LEGAL SYSTEM TO RECOGNIZE AND PROTECT NATIVE HAWAIIAN CULTURAL INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY, TRADITIONAL CULTURAL EXPRESSIONS, AND GENETIC RESOURCES.

Mahalo for hearing this resolution as it is much overdue. I have a sad and angry heart that we even have to be here to discuss this today. But this is the way it is in the western world, where it is okay to STEAL SOMETHING THAT IS NOT YOURS.

The whole idea of any one individual or entity claiming all rights and ownership to something that they did not create or develop is unconscionable and is a TOTAL THEFT. This is a travesty when a nation of kanaka maoli have to rise up to protect and say NO, NO MORE - you cannot steal our language, names of our food, traditions, culture, etc.! These things are for ALL TO SHARE not for the benefit of one. Only in the white man's world & culture can you legally steal something that does not belong to you. IF IT WERE A CHILD, WE'D CALL IT KIDNAPPING; IF IT WERE YOUR ITEMS, WE'D CALL IT PROPERTY THEFT; IF IT WERE SOMEONE'S IDENTITY, WE'D CALL IT IDENTITY THEFT. TODAY, lets stop this thievery once and for all! Mahalo for allowing me to share my testimony and express my FULL SUPPORT SCR 204. Please PASS SCR 204 out of your committee.

Me ke aloha.

																					I'm sure you all have heard this time and time again, 'delo Hawai'i is sacred to kanaka maoil and not only to them, also to anyone who has learned different cultural aspects of Hawai'i ne It is light and no special meaning to those who have not learned, as such in this case. I'm sur he meant no harm, but that makes this case even more emotional, is if he only knew what ALO-HA is a draulaly meanshis business would flourish. But he chose to trademark the name, and ALO-HA is a way of life, and cannot be trademarked. If our government even knew h special that word is, it would not have been trademarked. It is our kuleana as kanaka mac to educate and share ALO-HA so those we

You should really stand with us because people from all over the world are watching what is happening here and they stand with us, kanaka! The house of cards will fall down and all of you will be charged with war crimes. Karma is a bitch! Mahalo  Rule of Law  We get it and we support the indigenous folks and the right to be free of cultural appropriation, colonialism and all that other bullshit. The audacity of corporation in Chicago trying to claim the they own the rights to the the term 'Aloha' and attempting to sue the people of Hawaii to stop them from using the word in ANY context is too ludicrous and sets far too dangerous a precedent to go unchallenged. Please push back gainst these arrogant people and set the record straight as to who has the rights here.

																						Please do the right thing and protect words that define the culture of Hawaii. I was born and raised there and it became so expensive to live there that I had to make the hard decision to move away from all of my family and friends. I went to college and developed my career in Hawaii. Do not let others take more away from the culture of Hawaii. This is what happened with Hulih ulic chicken when it got trademarked. Aloha and Poke are Hawaii. You cannot allow anyone or any company take that away. Our words have great meaning to all residents of Hawaii. Hawaii needs to protect all of its assets especially when it comes to culture and tradition Not only people that live in Hawaii need you to fight and ensure Hawaii is protected, but all of us who truly respect our home regardless of where that they did not create or develop is unconscionable and is total theft. This is a travesty when a nation of kanaka maoli has to rise up to protect and say no you cannot steal our language, names of our food, traditions, culture, etc. These things are for ALL TO SHARE not for the benefit of one. Only in the white man's western culture can you legally steal something that does not belong to you. Today, Let us stop this thievery once and for all! Mahalo for allowing me to share my testimony
